

AMERICAN HOME COMPANIONS WINS TOP BUSINESS AWARDS

Orlando, FL - September 28, 2009 - American Home Companions was awarded Second Place for Outstanding Small Business of the Year and earned a spot on the Golden 100/Ultimate CEO's as one of Central Florida's largest privately held companies. American Home Companions was also recognized as one of The Ultimate Newcomers on the list published by the Orlando Business Journal.

In a year when many businesses have seen revenues and profits decline American Home Companions has achieved yet another milestone. "American Home Companions continues to grow by providing value to our clients in an otherwise difficult economy," says Jim Mark, Owner and CEO of American Home Companions. "Through a singular focus on the needs of our clients we continue to expand and allow in-home care to become available to more senior citizens throughout Florida," Mr. Mark adds.

The Orlando Business Journal has been honoring Orlando-based businesses for the last 25 years. Qualifications for the Golden 100/Ultimate CEO's list companies must be headquartered in Orange, Seminole, Osceola or Lake Counties, and cannot be a subsidiary of a company based outside of the Central Florida area.

Since 1992, American Home Companions has offered the services of in-home eldercare companions allowing Florida seniors to live in the familiar and secure setting of their own home. American Home Companions works with hospitals, physicians, social workers, rehabilitation centers, nurse registries, and home health agencies in a combined effort to allow older adults to live their golden years in the comfort of their own homes.
