

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 25, 2010

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT

Kimberly Anderson
407-206-5040
kanderson@commonsenseof.com
www.CommonSenseOF.com

INC. MAGAZINE TAPS COMMON SENSE OFFICE FURNITURE

Orlando, FL – Inc. Magazine has included Common Sense Office Furniture in its list of the 5000 fastest growing companies in the US. The list is comprised of the country’s fastest growing companies based on the percentage of revenue growth from calendar year 2006 to 2009.

Despite well publicized economic issues in the United States during this period Common Sense Office Furniture capitalized on the customers’ needs for better values and services. Owner and President, Craig Caswell stated, “Our customer service team and the ever increasing need for better value has helped us grow during this challenging economy. Both existing and new customers needed to save time and money but not compromise on quality and appearance. Our complete range of products, from beautiful pre-owned office furnishings to in stock quick ship programs, help fulfill our customers’ needs. People are tasked with getting more done with less and we’re here to help them achieve that goal.”

COMMON SENSE

OFFICE FURNITURE

Since 1997 Common Sense Office Furniture has offered excellent customer service which has attracted new clients and retained existing ones. “We pride ourselves every day on responding quickly and accurately to our customers needs – people don’t have surplus time to repeat tasks and we’re here to service them in one single step,” said Caswell.

Jill Kaufman of the Small Business Development Center states: “The SBDC at UCF’s Advisory Board Council program is very proud to congratulate Craig Caswell of Common Sense Office Furniture on his induction into the Inc. 5000 list. Mr.Caswell has been a committed client of the program since 2008 and has effectively utilized the expert assistance of his advisory board to position his company for expansion. Common Sense Office Furniture’s strong record of growth is a testament to Mr. Caswell’s agile leadership and exemplary dedication to his business and the community.”

Established in 1997, Common Sense Office Furniture is a privately held corporation based in Orlando, Florida, providing customers throughout Florida and the Southeast with the opportunity to purchase or lease new and used brand name office furnishings. Please visit www.CommonSenseOF.com for more information.