SBDC at UCF Hosts 5th Annual Economic Outlook for Small Businesses with UCF Economist Sean Snaith

Orlando, FL- The Small Business Development Center at the University of Central Florida University (SBDC at UCF) is hosting a presentation entitled “Economic Outlook 2012” with top forecaster Sean Snaith, Ph.D. on Thursday, February 2, 2012, 8:30 to 10:30 am, at the Embassy Suites Orlando Downtown, 191 East Pine Street in Orlando. The registration fee is $20 per person and includes a continental breakfast. Pre-registration is required and space is limited.

This annual SBDC event provides Central Florida business owners with the opportunity to hear from one of the nation’s top forecasters and address economic concerns facing the small business community. The event will feature keynote speaker Sean Snaith, Ph.D., economist and director of the Institute for Economic Competitiveness with UCF’s College of Business Administration. Snaith, who was named one of the most accurate forecasters in the nation by Bloomberg News, will present his economic outlook and discuss how the economic conditions are affecting the region and state, as well as examine the real estate market and employment outlook. He will also entertain questions from the audience.

Snaith’s presentation will be preceded by remarks from Teresa Jacobs, Mayor of Orange County Government which is sponsoring the event. “Economic Outlook 2012” is part of the SBDC at UCF’s “Strategic Seminar Series”. To register or for more information regarding the Economic Outlook for Small Business event and the SBDC at UCF, visit www.sbdcorlando.com or call 407.420.4850.
